EOL notification due to Fab 2 (Nobeoka Plant) Fire

Due to the fire which occurred on Oct 20, 2020, Asahi Kasei Microdevices Corporation (“AKM”) is currently in the process of requesting customers to switch to replacement products offered by other suppliers and setting up alternative production line for customers with difficulty to switch.

Under constrained resources, similar product lines will inevitably be consolidated to limit the number of products to transfer the production.

Therefore, AKM hereby announces this EOL notification for the following products.
