

Part Change for Marktech Optoelectronics LEDs

Announced July 18, 2017

Effective Immediately

The following parts are affected by this announcement:

EOL Part Number	Replaced by
MT212T-G-A	MT212TB-G-A

DESCRIPTION OF CHANGE

Effective immediately – The Marktech Optoelectronics overseas facility has added slightly more particulates to the top surface of the LED making the unit appear slightly more diffused in this area. The reason for the change is to improve overall output uniformity and appearance.

IMPACT OF CHANGE

Marktech Optoelectronics believes this change will be transparent to the majority of customers / end users as the electrical, mechanical and optical characteristics of the specification are virtually un-changed, however, it is the recommendation of Marktech engineering that all customers are informed of this change and new samples be provided for evaluation.
