Decommission of Newport, Wales wafer fab, as announced by the corporation on May 5th 2015

► Products affected:

See attached for affected parts.

► Detailed Change Information:

Subject: Additional Silicon Foundry for wafer backend of line with wafer testing at Infineon Kulim, Malaysia

Reason: As part of a manufacturing consolidation plan announced in March 2015, Infineon indicated that it would be closing the Fab11 facility and transferring the production capability for certain parts to Silicon Foundry. For the avoidance of doubt, in order to retain necessary flexibility to ensure supply security, the supply of products during the transition period will include products from both the old and the new site(s).
